

Financial Analysts

Fall - Winter 2011-12

Will Metzidakis joined Mokhus in November 2011 as a Financial Analyst for Capital Markets. Prior to Mokhus, he worked as a Managing Consultant at Michael Page International in their corporate finance practice. Here his work focused primarily on search execution, project management, market research, and business development within the Fortune 500 space. His clients included major advertising, television, digital media, fashion, luxury retail, and professional services firms. Prior to Michael Page, Mr. Metzidakis worked in Management at Enterprise Rent a Car, where he ran business operations for three offices in Manhattan. Here he oversaw a staff of 15 employees, and was responsible for logistics, budgeting, sales planning, and cost control for over $7 million of company assets. Mr. Metzidakis holds a BA in Economics from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst and also studied Financial Economics at the University of Paris, Dauphine. He is currently in his first year of the MBA program at Fordham University, majoring in Finance and Accounting. Mr. Metzidakis is fluent in French.

Pratibha Rajbhandari joined Mokhus in November of 2011 as a Financial Analyst for Analysis and Underwriting. She has worked at the Pace University Small Business Development Center as a Business Advisor since November of 2009. She provides strategic and business development counseling to small businesses and aspiring entrepreneurs in the New York City area. Her advisory work includes the development and expansion of business plans, market analysis, identifying funding sources and securing financing for the business ventures. Previously, Ms. Rajbhandari worked as a trading and research assistant for Bayesian Efficient Strategic trading LLC (BEST). Ms. Rajbhandari is active in several organizations, including New York Cares, and she recently founded the South Asian Group of Entrepreneurs (SAGE) to help South Asian owned businesses in New York City. She holds a B.S. in Business Administration from Idaho State University and is in her second year of the MBA program at Pace University, concentrating in Financial Management. Ms. Rajbhandari is fluent in Hindi and Nepali.

Mei Mei joined Mokhus in November of 2011 as a Financial Analyst, Executive Management. She works as an analyst for the CEO and also supports both the Capital Markets and Analysis and Underwriting functions. Ms. Mei also works as a consultant at MZI Global focusing on the Chinese Market. Previously, Ms. Mei held several positions in China: in customer support and then analysis for Essence Securities Co. Ltd., where she analyzed stocks movements and forecasted market trends using both technical and fundamental analysis; in the office of credit risk management at China Merchants Bank-Jiaying branch, analyzing and approving loan applications for small and mid-sized companies; as an assistant accountant at Amass Freight International Co. Ltd. Ms. Mei holds a B.S. in finance from Missouri State University and is in her first year of the Global Finance Master's Program at Fordham University. Ms. Mei is a native speaker of Mandarin.